WHITESBURG, LETCHER COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 3, 1938.

NUMBER 6.

EMANATIONS

Ex Jailer Will Hall brought to the Eagle office the finest and largest sample of second crop apples we have seen in a long time. Second crop fruit in this section is usually of the earliest varieties and second crops result from a long continued growing season.

Ain't we tired? Think of this: Over 45,000 ballots for the people to use in the election next Tuesday were delivered to the County Clerk this week. All this besides jobs and jobs for others and getting out the two papers. It's no wonder we have been cussed and cussed by our customers because we sometimes couldn't get their work to them as soon as they expected.

You ought to walk into the new Presbyterian Church building here and see the three old fashion chairs donated to the church here in honor of the late Judge A. M. J. Cochran and from the very church to which he belonged in Covington. There is hardly any question that these chairs have been often used by this lamented great Kentuckian.

Dr. Owen Pigman, soon to locate in his new home in Lewis addition, has rented rooms up stairs in the Lucas Building on Main Street and with his son, Dr. Carl Pigman will soon have offices there. Dr. Pigman has been active in the medical profession for two dozen or more years while his son Carl has been energetic and active in his work for some years. Dr. Pigman is chairman of the Letcher County Medical Association.

The Eagle and News next week will take the opportunity to go to the expense to publish a table showing all the votes cast in the election. While the election in some instances may not be so important, every wide awake citizen should have a copy of this table for future use.

Our very fine and gentlemanly young friend Donald Brown, was stopped short by a wide-awake young lady a short time ago in the Sweet Shoppe. She smiled and he smiled, and said Donald, "May I have the last dance with you?" And said she, "You have already had it."

The business done by The Mountain Eagle under its new ownership and management could hardly have been better and it takes this opportunity to thank everybody for the generosity and encouragement shown in assisting the old Bird in getting on the wing again. Our dependence for success is in the hands of our business and professional people and the patronage of our good citizens all over the county and everywhere else. The Eagle has always been proud of the citizenship of Letcher County and as a rule that of the Mountains and to hold the citizenship on a high and higher standard has always been and is now its highest ambition. To do this it must have the encouragement, the patronage and good will of every loyal business or professional institution as well as every citizen. The wisest and the most powerful as well as the weakest and humblest has and will have an equal representative in the Eagle. It is the humble contender for the rights of all the people.

The Election Next Tuesday

Before another issue of the Eagle reaches its readers the 1938 November election will have become a past event. Elections, though they come so frequently these days, are always important and the more local the more important. So far as the National part of the election is concerned, and we mean the choosing of a member of Congress and a United States Senator, there is less interest manifested than has been observed for years. The fact that next Tuesday two members of the County Board of Education are to be elected is likely that a great proportion of the voters in the county will go to the polls and vote and thus make the vote cast for the Democratic and Republican candidates much larger. There are four candidates, as is already well known, asking for the support of the voters. That there can be not even the shadow of politics in these races the voters will be handed a small ballot on which they are to register their choice at the same time keeping in mind that they can vote for only two of the candidates. The four men asking for support are all well known county residents and so far as it is our privilege to say, each equally qualified. That question reduces itself entirely to the careful study of the voters at the election and the future welfare of our public schools one of the foundations upon which the perpetuation of our civilization and intelligence very greatly depends.

It is worthy of emphasis, it is worthy of the exercise of the best thought of our citizens that to a great extent in a few years to come Letcher County's citizenship, its moral stamina, its intelligence and its business propensities will be just what our public schools make them. When this is done no mistake can be made.

Short and Easy Ballot To Be Voted

The City of Louisville boasts that it has the shortest and easiest ballot to be voted it has ever had. The same is true all over the state as well as in Letcher County. A blind man could almost vote correctly on the ballot. The county ballot and voters must call for it. The names of four candidates are on it and the position of the names on it will be constantly changing. Voters must pick the names of two of the men in the upper Whitesburg Magisterial District embracing several districts on the river above town and in the four voting places on Cumberland the name of Oscar Marcum, the Democratic nominee for Constable will appear under the roster and the name of B. D. Blair, Republican nominee for this same office will appear under the Log Cabin. The voters in the Jenkins Consolidated school district will have no vote in the County School election.

The Mack Norman lot sale at London some days ago was the most successful as well as the weakest and humblest has and will have an equal representative in the Eagle. It is the humble contender for the rights of all the people.

Ky. & W. Va. Demonstrate Electric Cooking Test

The Cooking Cost Test demonstration put on Saturday in the Ky. & W. Va. Power Company's office here drew an interesting crowd. Miss Mary Elizabeth Curtis, home economist for the Company, was in charge of the demonstration. Hundreds of guesses as to the cost of electrically cooking three meals on three days or nine meals were made and the guesses ran from around sixteen cents and beyond fifty cents. In the morning before the contest began the meter was sealed by Dr. Passmore and Mayor Bill Collins and opened by them at the close of the contest. The meter was examined and it was found that Miss MacFrazier of Hot Spot and Miss Nell Maggard of Whitesburg, had tied on their guesses which were 17 1/2 cents cost for the nine meals. In the finality Miss Frazier, a beautiful electric iron and Miss Maggard a fine set of cooking pans. The third prize was awarded to James Taylor of Whitesburg, a set of cooking pans—whose guess was 17 3/8 cents.

Other prizes awarded were Henry Combs, a fine cake; Mrs. David Hays a pie; Mrs. T. Bryan, savory of rice; Arnold Collins, chili and Miss Ola Vee Sexton, pudding.

Aged Mayking Lady Is Called

At the home of her son, Donald Brown, a fine cake was served by Mrs. Josephine Amburgey, 74, an excellent lady, after years of disability and suffering, passed to the better beyond a few days ago. Mrs. Amburgey was a "Knot County Collins" by marriage and was the mother of a large family of children. She was an excellent Christian mother and loved by all who knew her. The Croft Funeral Home in the County Seat had charge of the funeral and burial arrangements. Burial took place in the old Bettie burying ground near Mayking. The funeral was attended by a large number of sympathizers to all the bereaved readers and friends.

Well Known Young Couple Are Married

Miss Beatrice Hall and Mr. George Nelson were happily married at the Presbyterian Church house Saturday night, Oct. 29, by Rev. O. V. Caudill. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hall of Thornton. Mr. Nelson was employed by the Big Ben office in Chicago before coming to Letcher County. He has been employed by the Elkhorn Coal Company at Kona for the past three years.

Miss Hall has spent most of her time in Whitesburg for the last two years. She was known as the "Smiling Waitress" at Joe T's Cafe. The "Busy Bee" will be missed by her many friends in Whitesburg. Those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Holbrook.

After the ceremony the couple hurried to their newly furnished home at Kona. Their friends wish them a long and successful life in the years to come.

John Duke, good Fleming business citizen was a caller in the County Seat, Tuesday.

IN THE LIGHT AND SUNSHINE OF THE COUNTY CAPITOL

News, Half News, Observations, Comments, What-Not and What-Is, Scrambled Quickly for The Busy Reader.

Herman Ison, hustling Blackie business man was up Saturday and entered the subscription of his mother, Mrs. Grant Ison of Jerusalem for one year. For twenty-five years Mrs. Ison was a subscriber to the Eagle without missing a copy.

Wesley Cornett, of Linefork, one of our best old time friends, was in the City Saturday and promised to send over his subscription to the Eagle.

Aunt Clara Collins, over 94, the only living Civil War pensioner in the county was in town Monday. Her oldest son, Elisha, now 72 was with her. An older daughter, the late Mrs. Mary Davis would be 74 had she lived till today. Aunt Clara is one of the finest old ladies in the county and it is a pleasure to see her around.

Judge Sandy Adams came in with a bit of good news. It was a check for $150 to pay for a subscription to be sent to his daughter, Mrs. Don English at Middlesboro.

Mrs. S. M. Childers has been severely sick for some days but at this time is reported slightly improved.

The Men's Bible Class last Sunday was as usual a very interesting and instructive affair. Prof. Squires was well informed on his subject and all were pleased with it. Among those attending were: L. W. and Leroy Fields, Prof. Squires and Hale, Harry Moore, J. Wash Adams, Sam Adkins, N. M. Webb, Hubert Adams, Steve Hanson, Bowen, Eugene Moore, Jack Swisher, Joe Rogers, Roland Adkins, Ralph Stewart, Henry Williams, Raymond Fields, Edwin Jenkins and Harold Fields.

Next Sunday's program will be in charge of Young Jack Swisher. His subject will be, "Honoring Our Parents." There should be a good crowd present and especially those of Jack's class.

The story of the ten-year-old girl's marriage to a thirty-four year old miner over in Floyd County, whether true or untrue, to our notion, is unworthy of going before the readers of the Eagle or News. Therefore, we refuse to publish the details of such a tragedy, for such it is. To herald such as this can only belittle the fair intelligence of our mountain people and belittle them to the outside world. Floyd County, the home of thousands of the best people in the world, like Letcher County, has surely suffered enough from those who would take the lowest strata of human life and air them to the world. As one we refuse to join in such exploitations.

Frank Dawahare says that while everybody else has been moping and complaining about business his has been forty percent better in the past two or three months than it was in any three months last year. Frank believes in putting on a rosy face and fitting his action to his face. He will soon put on a big advertising campaign.

Watson G. Holbrook has been a very sick man for some days but Verna returned from Lexington with a new baby so he is improving now.

The baby happens to be a cute little negro doll.

Mrs. Alice Tolliver, confined to her home here for several months is reported slightly improved in the last few days.

The Fish and Game Club, one of the most active and progressive organizations in the county met with a great number of members of the club as well as other interested citizens at the Campbell school house on lower Linefork Wednesday evening and a lively session was held. Other meetings are scheduled for various other sections of the county.

The senior Baptist Training Union of the First Baptist Church will give its program at Crafts only on next Sunday, Nov. 6th at 2:30 P. M. Everybody are invited to attend.

Rheumatic Sufferer Passes The Goal

After many months of intense suffering and long disquiet due to a type of rheumatism all of which he bore with patience and Christian fortitude, Morgan McCray, a well known Whitesburg citizen around forty years old died Saturday morning at his home. His passing had been expected for several months. He was a son of the late Solomon McCray and besides his 16 year old daughter, his widow, and several brothers and sisters leaves a large circle of friends all over the county. Mr. McCray is a daughter of the late Wesley Breeding who lived and died on the head of Garner Branch of Rockhouse. Until the deceased lost his health he was for years employed at the Sandlick Coal Mines where he was honored and respected by his fellow workers and all who knew him. He had been a strong church worker for a number of years and only lately had attached himself to the Regular Baptist Church at Mayking. For ten or more years he had been an earnest member of Eagle Council Junior Order here and as long as his health would permit was always found at his post an earnest and faithful fraternal worker. This order had charge of the funeral and burial rites which took place at the little family burial place at Garner.

Mr. Burke, who was for years associated with him in the Junior fraternity had charge of the mortuary arrangements. Memorial services in his behalf were conducted by the Regular Baptists assisted by others.

Since his early boyhood the Eagle has known and was intimately associated with Morgan McCray and he never observed a crooked step or an evil act in all his years. He was honest, he was fraternal to a fault and he was deeply religious and he will be missed by those who knew him so intimately and his many relatives and friends will miss the man that he was. We offer sympathies to all the bereaved.

Shameful Hallowe'en Depredations

Monday night, being Hallowe'en night, the ruins of the law were loosened and a number of persons took advantage of this and performed a number of uncalled for depredations and dangerous pranks or that is what they might be called. Beale Boggs, connected with the County's sanitary health department and Miss Cora Reynolds, a teacher, employed in graded schools were driving down the highway from Neon when the car ran into a wire stretched across the road. The car left the highway completely, rolled over and was almost destroyed. Mr. Boggs escaped injury but Miss Reynolds was severely injured, so much so that she was not able to do her work in school the next day and possibly for some days. A mechanic employed at the Boone Motor Company, driving into a log lay across the highway, wrecking his car and seriously injuring him. No doubt other dangerous tricks, dangerous to life and limb, were played.

The Eagle desires to be reasonable in all things, and it has no objection to criticism where criticism is out of place but it does seem that the action of those who would purposely connect and associate with the law in the ordinary run of things, bringing death or great bodily injuries to persons in the ordinary avocations and way of life. There is no more excuse in wrecking a car or a railway train on Hallowe'en night so far as the stringency of the law is concerned than on any other night or any other time. As intimated in innocent fun and laughable tricks are unlawful and dangerous depredations should not be countenanced for a moment and the hands of the law made impotent though it is an evening of merry-making.

Spooky Hallowe'en

Monday night the Hallowe'en spirit was rife in Whitesburg and all kinds of spooky hobgoblins and the strangest of strange things were flying around. The side-walks were crowded to a late hour and everybody seemed to be having a good time. Nobody seemed to know what it was all about.

And, did you know that Whitesburg is in better condition financially than any of the towns mentioned above? The truth is, according to records kept by the City Council, if all the outstanding debts due the town were paid the city would owe only around $3,100 and this is not due to be paid till 1945.

Again, don't stop the public works; while the ball is rolling keep it rolling. And, remember that if we don't reach these Government expenditures other towns and cities will. Let's have another bridge or so, a modern city hall, more and more street improvements and more new streets. Vote "Yes" on the Bond Issue.

STATEMENT

It has been rumored among the voters that if Noah Gibson and James Whitaker are elected as Members of The County Board of Education that Superintendent Watson Webb will only get to serve for one year. The truth is that the Superintendent was hired for four years beginning on July first of this year.

NOAH GIBSON, JAMES WHITAKER, Pol. Adv.

Added to the great number of improvements in the county seat are those of hustling Henry Combs in the making of the nice improvements in front of his store building on Main Street. You can now decently enter the Brown Department Store without hesitancy.

The news of the death of Mrs. McCracken, mother of Hugh Foster, well known in the county seat was received here with deep regret. Mr. Foster married a daughter of Andrew Adams, Sr. of Little Cowan.

Shall We Vote For Bonds?

First, are we a progressive and forward looking people? Or are we willing to sit down and thus go back to the dozen years ago and remain there while the rest of the world sweeps on toward higher and better things? The answer to this question will be heard when the ballot boxes are answered on next Wednesday when the vote on the proposed $20,000 bond issue ballots are counted.

The last three years has seen a wonderful transformation take place in Whitesburg. The end of this wonderful transforming is not yet if the proposed bond issue is approved by the voters. To do this is an opportunity that will most probably never come to us again or our children. Great sums of money are to be spent on public improvements in the United States in the next year, or two. Whether we provide to receive our part of it depends upon ourselves to provide for the means of spending it. If we don't that money will go somewhere else.

Had you thought of what spending $20,000 in public works would mean for Whitesburg? Should we provide for this sum the Federal Government will match it by around $160,000. Probably we do not need to have that much money spent for public improvements. Should we provide only $10,000 then our Federal appropriation would be $80,000. Would our taxes be higher? Well probably a little, but would not the increase in value of the property far overcome this?

Whitesburg has in the past two years done well in public improvements, but go to Hazard, Harlan, Cumberland, Pikeville, Paintsville, Prestonsburg and see what these towns have done and are doing by showing their activity in putting up a little money and making a big deal. Shall Whitesburg stop in its tracks and lag behind these progressive mountain cities? Let the answer be "no" on next Tuesday.

And, did you know that Whitesburg is in better condition financially than any of the towns mentioned above? The truth is, according to records kept by the City Council, if all the outstanding debts due the town were paid the city would owe only around $3,100 and this is not due to be paid till 1945.

Again, don't stop the public works; while the ball is rolling keep it rolling. And, remember that if we don't reach these Government expenditures other towns and cities will. Let's have another bridge or so, a modern city hall, more and more street improvements and more new streets. Vote "Yes" on the Bond Issue.

Roland Price, Harry Wilcox, Gordon Lewis and several others attended Louisiana State and Tennessee Football game in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Slem and son of Big Stone Gap, were in Whitesburg Saturday seeing friends. Mrs. Slem attended the Woman's Club Convention.

Entered as second class matter August 28, 1907, at the post-office at Whitesburg, Kentucky, under the Act of Congress of August 9th, 1873.

Every body made and every kind word spoken for the growth and up-building of Whitesburg is, or should be a bonanza for every citizen in the county. Coming to the County Seat and spending an hour or two on its streets and visiting its business places is like strolling around home, for the place is every citizen's own town. There are two or more miles of concrete streets in the city limits and every man, woman and child is free to walk or drive over every inch of them without molestation. The big wide open spaces now around the public square, also belonging to all the people in the county are free day and night to enjoy and the old jail, with every thing new about it, is now so dirty and dingy on the inside that it looks pitiful. It once compared favorably to the old courthouse, that is before the bright addition was added but now it's horribly looking. Yet anybody can get into it if they so act and like. It's much better and certainly much cheaper to walk on the free side walks and look at the old stone castle than to be in and looking out.

So friends when you have occasion to do so speak a good word for the old town, your own town, and when you desire come into its wide open streets, make your self at home for it is your own.

We earnestly regret that we are forced to remove many old names from our subscription list this week. In most instances it is like severing relationships with an old friend, but necessity often demands this. The subscriptions of a greater proportion of those removed ended July 1st, August 1st and October 1st. The Eagle for financial reasons cannot carry a load of uncertain and probably in too many cases heavy losses. We are determined to keep the Eagle steely clear of rocks, reefs and whatever may beset or interfere with its success. In being a friend to either of your county papers you are a friend to your county. We are working every day and often into the night to make the Eagle and News the substantial representative of all our people and we do expect them to meet us at least half way. If you fail this week to get the Eagle, please confer with us at once.

Maybe the new National Wage and Hour Law was timed to become effective just before the election. And maybe the timing of it may result different from what it was expected. The election next Tuesday may tell whether or not it was properly timed. Generally as a rule, the new law seems to be popular and of this, too, time alone can tell.

Puppets for Story Hour

Children who attend the WPA Packhorse Library Story Telling Hour now have an added attraction. Cunniff Puppets have been given the library in order to make the story hour more interesting. The stories, "Elves and Shoemaker," "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Three Little Pigs" and "Goldenlocks" and "The Three Bears" have interesting and amusing puppets to help make the story more entertaining. All children and any grown-ups who wish are invited to attend.

The number of books in the library is steadily increasing. Besides many local contributions that have been made recently, Patterson Public Library gave 186 books for use on this subject. We appreciate any and all gifts.

National Book Week will be here soon. Why not give books or magazines to the library in order that someone else may enjoy it as you have? Why not stop at the library and see if you can find something you haven't read? Come in and look us over! You are always welcome.

How Nervous and Unstrung are People

The nervous and unstrung condition of the people of the United States was well illustrated Sunday night when they listened to a radio dramatization of H. G. Wells' great book, "The Men of the Planet Mars" invading the United States. It seems that the thousands of radio listeners failed to catch the explanation of the radio drama given in the beginning and later on believed that the whole awful destruction depicted was actually taking place. Hundreds of excited weeping and panicky people all over the country it seems practically swamped newspaper offices, switch-boards and other public bureaus of information with the question, "is it actually taking place?" In some sections people ran excitedly from their homes and declared they could see the flaring lights streaking the skies and hear and smell the brimstone crackling in the air. Jersey City, N. J., the supposed central point of destruction and New York, close by, for some time were believed to be entirely destroyed.

It is said that the play purely fictional will not be allowed again over the radio.

Car Wrecks and Disasters Continue

At Marion, Crittenden county, three young men were killed outright Sunday morning when the car they were driving struck the wing of a small bridge and bounded nearly fifty feet into the air across a small stream. At Mayfield Sam McAlister, 40, a druggist died Sunday from an Automobile injury received on the Friday before. Near Hopkinsville James H. O'Brien, 69, was killed by another autoist. Saturday night, eight miles north of Byram, Miss., six persons were killed when the auto in which they were traveling struck a Greyhound bus. No fatalities have been so far reported in our own immediate section of the state.

Miss Gertrude Mowrer for the past six months employed in the County Health Department accepted health work at Wheelwright and has gone there. Miss Wells is now the only employee in the County Health work.

Letters To The Editor

We Get Criticism And Accept It.

Nov. 1st, 1938

Editor, Mountain Eagle:
As you failed to print my letter for last week's issue of your paper, I am writing you again. That letter was not written, merely, for criticism but to point out certain spots in Whitesburg that have long been overlooked by those responsible for the up-building of the town. One neglected place, stressed, was Lewis Addition with hog pens and some sewage tanks near the concrete bridge and college hill. These suggestions were made with the view of trying to have something done that would make it worthwhile to live in this part of town. I am not asking The Eagle to take issues with me but would like to know how a taxpayer, living in a neglected part of town, can get his views before the public and those responsible for the sanitary and other conditions, except through the medium of his town newspaper?

Will the Eagle maintain her lofty flight?

DR. OWEN PIGMAN.

REPLY: We acknowledge receipt of the communication referred to by Dr. Pigman, but alone owing to the fact that this paper only lately started out on "tender feet" and it could not for the time being throw itself into antagonistic attitudes and thus become the mouth-piece of those who as neighbors and well-wishers citizens could settle their differences if they had any among themselves. And besides this, the City Council, serving for no selfish interest itself, but for the best and highest good of all could not neglect its duty and let go loose certain conditions that effect the health, happiness and welfare of any one or more of its citizens. If anyone, therefore is neglecting his duties and responsibilities as a citizen and that too to the detriment and injury of any neighbor or neighbor and thus becomes known it is the duty of the Council to look after the matter without delay. Whitesburg is no longer an antiquated town; it stands on a high eminence with the blazing light of the 20th Century all around it. Fifth and other nauseating things common in the old days are long since divorced from all active progressive and wide awake towns.

At a date not far in the future the Eagle hopes to get more substantially on its feet. It hopes then to double and more than double its size. Then with more room and more time to coolly and judiciously think it expects to dedicate an "Open Forum" column wherein readers can discuss questions, not grievances, for themselves as they see them and the good of the masses. Till then, kindly deal tenderly with us. Yes, the Eagle will continue its lofty flight, but it must get up there before it can.

To The Mountain Eagle:

Whitesburg shows much improvement of late. The new WPA bridge adds to the general appearance of the Lewis Addition. Nice new streets have been built around railroad street and the side streets leading from this street back to Madison street. Adding to the beauty of Lewis Addition, is College Heights with its new made streets and wooded precipice that looms up near the river section of this part of town. But to mar all this beauty there is a hog pen maintained on Madison street near the Whitesburg Wholesale Company's establishment.

Also there is another hog pen just across the river on the property of the Boone Motor Company. Between this hog pen and the beautiful college building, near the top of the precipice, there stands concrete tanks with pipes pouring unsightly, ill smelling sewage down the mountain side. This is a public nuisance to the people living in the south or river side of this part of town. Many other parts of Whitesburg are receiving special attention; for instance, Collins Harvey Addition where only a few short years ago we property owners paid a high street assessment; these old streets are torn away and nice new streets are being built and there is only one member of the town board living in Collins-Harvey Addition.

Other parts of town are receiving special attention; new streets built; old ones torn up and re-modeled, etc. All this is well, even if that are isolated, believe in going forwards but we do not believe in taxation without representation. Madison is one of streets of Whitesburg but has the oldest and most traveled ragged sidewalk and gutter on the south side of the street. The water company being permitted to tear away the gutter, fish out and try to repair old cedar pipes that have long been a nuisance. This condition has existed for years. Why have we been forgotten except at tax collecting time?

So far as we can learn, no member of the town board has ever resided on the south side of Madison Street.

If this be criticism, it is made with the view of having something done about these unsanitary neglected conditions. The taxpayers in this part of town have a right to know what is being done with that part of their money that is dumped into the regular relief fund and why they are not entitled to some consideration.

Who dictates the location and spending for these projects?

Who should enforce the laws and try to build up all parts of our town?

(Signed) DR. OWEN PIGMAN.

Favors Appreciated

We wish to thank our many friends who so royally stood by us during the sickness and death of our Dear Mother, Mrs. Ritter Williams who passed away, Oct. 18.

It is very hard indeed to give up a loving mother, but we know our loss is Heaven's gain, and by doing God's holy will, we will see her again. We also wish to thank the many friends for their beautiful flowers and Rev. G. Bennett Adams, Kirby Ison and Marion Blair for their many sweet and consoling words.

Mr. Burke who had charge of the burial, we will never forget.

May the loving Saviour send his choice blessings to each and all of you. This is our prayer.

HER CHILDREN,

Stuart Robinson School News

The members of the Good Citizens' Club, chartered by Mrs. P. A. Tice and Miss Mary Ervin, enjoyed a delightful hike and picnic lunch last Tuesday afternoon.

The initial game of our basketball was played with Hardbury on the home floor last Tuesday evening, and resulted in a 32-17 victory for Stuart Robinson. Our boys were not so fortunate in the game with Hindman Friday evening, their opponents winning 47-13. Friends of Mr. S. A. Knox were pleasantly surprised to see him at the Hindman - Stuart Robinson game, he having come over from Prestonsburg for the occasion.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Cooper spent last Thursday in Hazard.

The latest additions to our dormitory family are Marie Smith, of Slem, Robert McGraw, of Goodwater, Alabama, Jimmie Archer, of Blue Diamond, and Roscoe Smith, who lives in our community, but whose family plans to move away soon.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Cooper, Murray and Kitty Cooper, and Jean West motored to North Carolina, Friday. They visited Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Cooper in North Wilkesboro and Miss Mary Cooper in Graham, and attended the Duke-Carolina football game in Chapel Hill. The party returned to Stuart Robinson, Monday afternoon.

On Friday evening Miss Florence Gray and Mrs. P. A. Tice entertained the Community Young People's Group at a Halloween party in the Recreation Room.

Most of our boarding students went home for the week end. Robert McGraw, both from Alabama, and consequently 'oo far to go home, spent the time quite pleasantly with Ernest Lawrence, of Cumberland, and Paul Wright, of Cronona, respectively. A Halloween masquerade party was given Saturday evening for the girls and boys who remained here.

Mr. T. S. Moore conducted the Sunday morning service at the Doermann Memorial Presbyterian Church in Blackey, and Mr. Casey Morton, the Sunday evening service in the Stuart Robinson School auditorium in the absence of Rev. W. L. Cooper. Miss Hattie Lee Faires was called to her home near Rock Hill, South Carolina Monday morning on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Misses Mary Ervin and Nancy Boyd complimented the children of their grades—fifth and sixth, and third and fourth—with Halloween parties, Monday afternoon.

Misses Clara Belle Smith and Florence Gray, and Messers. T. S. Moore and General Croucher accompanied a large group of our high school students to Whitesburg to see "Marie Antoinette" Monday afternoon, making the trip in our new truck. That evening most of the other members of the faculty motored to Whitesburg to see the same picture.

Blackey School News

Our second month has gone and there has been good attendance in every room.

It was with regret that the students in our school told Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Cockham goodbye. They had been members of one school for the past ten years. They have been the speakers for every chapel program, and everyone looked forward to their coming. Their going has left a vacancy in our school and in our community that will be hard to fill.

The Friday afternoon program last week was in charge of Messrs. Webb and Hogg's rooms.

The Honor Roll for the second month: 1st, and 2nd grades, Charles, Ann Caudill, Betty Sue Dixon, Harry Smith, Caleda Marie Wilson, Cora Edna West, Margaret Sizemore, Nell Portwood, Vinson Blair, Jewelene Adams, Rena Bailey, Martha Hall, Ruth Trent, Mary South, Mildred Brown, Martha Dixon, Charlie Caudill, Jimmy Hampton, 3rd and 4th grades, Okey Risner, Tommy Lovell, Thelma Smith, Lucy Bailey, Iona Smith, Matilda Hale, Edith Scott, Bethel West, Watson Caudill, Juanita Little, Alice Hale, Josephine Branson, Carmine Combs, Arnold Wilson, Stephen Hall and Gaynell Caudill.

Mrs. Bertie Maggard has been appointed certifying agent for the WPA and will be located at the County building on the poor farm near Whitesburg. This will be a great convenience for those who desire to register for WPA work.

EOLIA NEWS

The Cumberland Progressive 4-H Club met and had a very interesting program on Oct. 22nd. The program consisted of poems, discussions and club songs. This being our last program for the year all signed up for 1939 and we hope to accomplish much more in our Club work during the coming year.

The Auxiliary of the Cumberland Valley Presbyterian Church held their circle meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Jane Aquinas. We had eleven ladies out, and had an interesting lesson on Philippians, after which came our social hour. We gave Miss Figures a handkerchief shower as she was leaving Thursday for her home in Alabama.

Everyone was surprised at the receipts from the Pie Supper Saturday night at the Maggard School which was $49.25.

Miss F. M. Collier spent a week with her daughters in Appalachia and Norton and returned Sunday.

Otis Caudill is spending the week in Kingsport, Tenn.

Miss Blanche Garrett spent Monday night in Whitesburg.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

This week nominations for Commitment to aid in the carrying out of the rain program, are being made.

There will be two nominees for each office. After the nominations are over, every farmer will be mailed a ballot with these nominees on it. They should mark their choice (one of the two nominated for each office) and mail it back to the County Agent's Office in the enclosed envelope.

There will be a delegate from each Community to meet at Whitesburg and elect the County Committee which is composed of three men and an alternate. The five communities into which we have the county divided are Whitesburg, Hot Spot, Linfork, Rockhouse and Cumberland.

The present County Committee is: J. Ison, Chairman; N. R. Day, Vice-Chairman; and L. C. McDaniel, regular member; and John D. Huff, Alternate. These men have done some mighty good work for Letcher County. And I for one appreciate the way they have cooperated with me for the betterment of Agriculture in the County.

2154 BOOKS DISTRIBUTED BY PACKHORSE LIBRARY

During the month of October 2,154 books were distributed throughout the county by the W. P. A. Packhorse Library carriers. One thousand and fifteen magazines were circulated through the library. This is 517 books and 620 magazines more than were circulated in September. It seems that the county is waking up to the advantages offered by the Library to the fact that cultural, social, intellectual, physical and spiritual development is through wide reading of books and magazines. It seems that 7,436 individuals were brought in contact with reading material through the efforts of the carriers who distribute these books.

All persons are invited to use the library at any time. If you wish to come in and read or to look over the contents please do not hesitate to do so. If there is some special magazine article or book you would like, we are glad to try to find it for you. We are here to serve.

Help us increase the number of books and magazines in the library. If other states are willing to contribute to Letcher County's growth by donating good books and magazines for the use of its citizens, surely those in the county who are able to help are willing to do so. Patterson Public Library of Patterson, New Jersey donated 186 books last month. Letcher Countyans donated 14 and most of them were discarded textbooks. This is an appeal for help. Please give us your support and help the library grow into something which the town and county may be justly proud of and which they may feel they have helped to create.

Martin Bentley and Miss Damie Bentley United in Marriage

Courts were held up Wednesday of this week for a few minutes while Martin Bentley of Neon and Miss Damie Bentley of the same town were getting married in the County Attorney's office. A trial was getting under way in the County Judge's court, the jury sworn, but the County Attorney was delayed and the cause of it all was that Martin Bentley and Damie Bentley were getting all set for sailing together or over life's stormy seas. Mr. Bentley is the son of Eld. Elbertson Bentley of Millstone and Miss Bentley, the beautiful daughter of Daniel Bentley of the same place. We wish them a life of the happiest bliss.

A WONDERFUL PAINTING

Ralph Webb, touring over much of the North and Eastern sections of our country recently spent some time in the National Park at Gettysburg, Pa. Speaking of a certain painting, "The Cyclorama of the Battle of Gettysburg" on exhibition in a certain building he says:

This picture is mounted on the wall of a circular building and is about 40 feet in diameter. It is valued at a cost of $200,000 and took over 3 years to paint. 20,000 soldiers are shown in the picture. The entire picture is on canvas and was painted in 23 parts. The picture itself is about 15 feet high and is fastened all around the wall of this building. I would say if it was straightened out it would be probably over 100 feet long. The picture is a scene of one of the Gettysburg battles, showing all the different regiments, cavalry troops and positions of both armies. The artist had one American and four Frenchmen who assisted him in this picture. It is copyrighted and no cameras are allowed in the building. The lecturer of the painting is a very smart man who knew personally many of the soldiers and officers of the War, especially Generals Meade, Webb and Hancock. This past summer when the 75th anniversary of the battle was held at Gettysburg, many of the old soldiers came in to look at the picture, marveling at the accuracy the artist displayed, and pointing out many instances shown on the picture that they well remembered.

SEVERAL WPA EMPLOYEES LOSE JOBS

Owing to activities at the coal operations in the county a great number of WPA workers have been absorbed by these miners. It was said that around 200 men had gone back to the mines. This deduction of men on WPA rolls necessarily reduced the number of foremen on projects and as a consequence a dozen or more of these lost their jobs. It is possible now since a certifying agent has been employed the WPA forces may be recruited and some of these foremen may be called back into the service.
